

The Greater Inwood Partnership was acknowledged for its community building work by the Aldine Independent School District.

The Greater Inwood Partnership attended the Aldine Independent School Districts Annual Business Partners Appreciation Luncheon on June 16, 2009 at the request of Eisenhower Ninth Grade School Principle, Mel McGowan.

The Greater Inwood Partnership's service was acknowledged during the luncheon for its continued commitment to education through its mentoring programs, participation in the peer review, funding 2 Aldine Lone Star Scholarships and area beatification work.

More information about the Greater Inwood Partnership and the community building work that they are responsible for can be found on their website www.GreaterInwoodPartnership.org.

Pictured from left to right:

Dr. Alton Smith, AISD Board Vice President & Greater Inwood Partnership Board Director
Sue Baxter, Greater Inwood Partnership Board Director
Debra Harlow, Greater Inwood Partnership Board Director
Ann Richardson, Greater Inwood Partnership Member, AISD Retired Teacher
Dr. Viola Garcia, AISD Board President
Ben Wilson, AISD Superintendent, Community and Governmental Relations

Not pictured but were in attendance:

Rick Miller, Greater Inwood Partnership Board Director
Mel McGowan, Eisenhower Ninth Grade School Principle
Irma Guardiola, Eisenhower Ninth Grade School Councilor